

DIGBOI COLLEGE

ITAVATA, P.O. DIGBOI-786171 (ASSAM)

Criterion: 7

INSTITUTIONAL VALUES & BEST PRACTICES

7.1.1 Action Plan for Gender Sensitization

Submitted to

THE NATIONAL ASSESSMENT AND
ACCREDITATION COUNCIL

Annual Action plan on Gender Sensitization and Gender Equity

SI	Name of the Programme	Objectives	Tentative time frame
1	Counseling programme for Girl students as well as boy- students	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ To address the issues of women health (both physical & mental) & hygiene; ✓ To make them aware of women's rights in the society; ✓ To make them aware of different career options; ✓ To make them aware of how to cope up with domestic issues. 	Quarterly every year
2	Programme (symposium/ seminar/ talk/workshops) on self-defense	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ To enable the girl students for protection against unacceptable social conducts; ✓ To develop confidence in the girl students and to empower them for self-protection in critical situations. 	Annually every year
3	Programme (symposium/ seminar/talk/workshops) on women empowerment in the adopted village, Saraipung	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ To create an environment of socio-economic equity amongst the village women; ✓ To equip the women with skill-based training programme; ✓ To make them able to earn livelihood by marketing their skills. 	Through NSS special camp organized in December-January, every year

DIGBOI COLLEGE

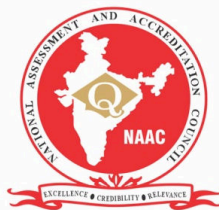

ITAVATA, P.O. DIGBOI-786171 (ASSAM)

CRITERIA - 7

INSTITUTIONAL VALUES & BEST PRACTICES

7.1 Annual Report

Submitted to

THE NATIONAL ASSESSMENT AND
ACCREDITATION COUNCIL

Training of Vermicompost production to the ladies of Saraipung village

The women of the adopted village Saraipung were trained with Vermicompost production techniques. Department of Zoology of Digboi College, in collaboration with NSS have initiated economic boosting techniques through community participation by generating the livelihood skills knowledge with zero cost investments for vermicomposting. A training programme on Vermi compost among the villagers of Saraipung village and distribution of 9 nos of Vermi Bed, organized by District Administration Dibrugarh in collaboration with NSS Digboi College unit, Digboi Forest Division

Mentoring Programme for 5th Semester Students

With an aim to identify the personal problems of the disturbed and distressed girl students of 5th semester was organized by Digboi College Women Welfare Cell on 22nd November, 2021 at the College Auditorium. The programme was presided over by Digboi College Women Welfare Cell President, Dr. Sangeeta Boruah Saikia. 23 students who participated from all the three streams shared their problems relating to their career and personal life with teacher mentor, Dr. Rashmi Patowary, HOD, Dept of Physics, Digboi College and Jonali Dutta, HOD, Dept of Chemistry, Digboi College. The students mostly came up with the problem of sexual harassment at home and in the street. The teacher mentors provided the students with emotional encouragement and motivation and assured them all possible help

Mentoring Programme for 3rd Semester Students

With an aim to offer professional advice and guidance as well as personal support to 3rd semester girl students was organized by Digboi College Women Welfare Cell on 10th January, 2022 at the college auditorium. The programme was presided over by Digboi College Women Welfare Cell President, Dr. Sangeeta Boruah Saikia. 23 students who participated from all the three streams shared their problems relating to their career and personal life with teacher mentor, Dr. Rashmi Patowary, HOD, Dept of Physics, Digboi College. Students mostly sought guidance and advice in identifying career options and a few among them talked about their personal life problems and sought advice for solving problems.

Celebration of International Women's Day:

To mark the occasion of International Women's Day, Digboi College Women Welfare Cell in association with the Lions Club of Digboi and IQAC, Digboi College organized a talk for all the mothers or caregivers on 8th March, 2022 at Balijan Borjan M.E. School on the topic "Role of Mother in the Child Development". The event was presided over by Dr. Sangeeta Boruah Saikia, President of Digboi College Women Welfare Cell. Mr. Pradip Dutta, Assistant Professor of Digboi College and Mrs. Urmi Sarmah, Associate Professor of Digboi Mahila Mahavidyalaya were invited as resource persons.

